SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCRAL

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15 .- Jimmy Carroll, lightweight instructor of the California Athletic Club, has become lightweight champion of America without battling for it, Jack McAuliffe having forfeited that title to him to-day. On Thursday night President Fulda telegraphed to McAuliffe that Carroll was ready to sign articles for championship fight at 133 pounds, or if McAuliffe would forfelt championship to him Carroll would fight him at 137 pounds for a purse and a side bet of $5,000. As ter of good faith Carroll deposited $500 with the club, o-day a dispatch was received from New York by President Fulda stating that McAuliffe would accept Carroll's second proposition and light at 187 pounds for the purpose of a bet. Carroll, therefore, has become lightweight champion of America, and will still be so if beaten by McAuloffe. The fight will take place in February in the California Athletic Club THE SPIDER IS INJURED. Confident predictions that some accident would happen to keep Murphy and Weir out of the ring on the 27th inst, have been verified. Weir's injured hand has become so much worse that it will be impossible for him to fight. The Spider accidentally shot himself in the finger some weeks ago, and the wound not being given a chance to heal, has become an ugly one that promises to get worse rather than better. The fight between Jack Dempsey and the Australian Murphy has been set for January 29. Much interest was aroused among New York sports to-day when it was definitely learned that Mitchell thinks Kilrain can defeat Jackson, the colored pugilist. Mitchell wates a friend in this city and expresses himself very atrongly on the matter. He says that Kilrain is a quicker boxer and a much harder hitter. Mitchell's opinion, if honest, is taken to mean that Jackson will be easily beaten by Sullivan.

VALUE OF THOROUGHBREDS.

A Prominent Authority Gives Interesting In formation on the Subject.

In a long article in the Fortnightly Review, William Day, the famous English racehorse trainer, has the following to say about the increasing value of thoroughbreds: At Middle Park, about 1867, or soon after, yearlings fetched extraordinary prices; as much as 1,000 guineas, and 2,400 guineas were given, and out of a lot one year the average price was 500 guineas, or 20,000 for the 40. Such prices no one thought would be exceeded or even over reached again. But prices have still gone up, and broodmares have increased in even ever reached again. But prices have still gone up, and broodmares have increased in value as much as the yearlings, and, in fact, every sort of raccherse has augmented in value in like proportion, till now over 2,000 guinens are given for a broodmare, and over 4,000 guineas for a yearling. Stallions have fetched 16,000 guineas, 20,000 guineas have been offered 16,000 guineas as som not sufficiently attractive to secure a yearling that was offered for sale and trefused for a horse in training, and 5,000 guineas was a som not sufficiently attractive to secure a yearling that was offered for sale at private contract this year.

But these facts and figures, gigantic and surprising as they are, dwindle into utter insignificance when compared with the value of Hernit has won in stakes and bets for his owner, Mr. Chaplin, semewhere about 4156,000, and has since carned at the stud at least as much more, and may still further augment this almost incredible sum. Again, Donovan, up to the present time, has won in stakes more than any house ever did, and may, and mont likely will add many more thousands to his record. He has already secured £29,963, and may yet even nurpase the mighty doeds of Hermit at the stud, as he has triumphed over his performances on the racecourse. Ayrshire, another lucky horse, has won for the same ducal owner mearly as much as Donovan himself, having secured in stakes alone over £35,000 up to the present date, and may, like him, yet increase largely this magnificent sum before his racing earer is terminated, and afterward be at the stud as great a success as either of the two extraordinary horses just mentioned. These few cases, to which many other horses may be added, will show us the present value of our racehorses, and how greatly it exceeds the worth of those of any other age or country.

LOCAL HORSEMEN EXPELLED.

The Board of Review Deals With Some

Pittsburgers have figured there prominently as stated in The Disparch that by the order of the Fairfield Agricultural Society, Lancaster, O. Joseph H. Heideger had been expelled from all association tracks. This statement was decided, but the report above mentioned shows that both Heideger and Henry Hagmaier, of this city, appealed against the order of the Fairfield Society. The Board of Review have confirmed the order so that the two local horsespen remain expelled. Following is the official report relating to the two cases: Joseph H. Heideger, Allegheny, Fa., ex parte. INDOOR BASEBALL.

A Pleasing Scheme That Will Interest Cranks in Winter.

PAPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. 1 NEW YORK, December 15.-The Baseball Association of the Thirteenth Regiment, of Brooklyn, firmly believe that baseball by gas-light and within doors can be played successfight and within doors can be played successfully. They have made a test of the scheme, formulated rules according to the size of the floor, and made such other arrangements that it is now left entirely to the question of light it is now left entirely to the question of light whether it can be made attractive as an indoor game. At a meeting last night at the Armory, at Flatbush avenue and Hanson place, six companies were enrolled as members of the association. The first championship game will be played next Wednesday night, beginning immediately after drill, and will continue for one hour and a half only. At that time the lights will be turned off, and the umpire will therefore be compelied to call the game on account of darkness. On Saturday, December 21, the first exhibition game will be played at which an admission fee will be charged. The full nine innings will be played. A number of prominent amateur players have, been selected to umpire the regular championship games, and Terry, Eushong. Burns, Hughes, of the Broeklyn club, will be asked to officiate in the exhibition games.

The rules as laid down for the government of the game calls for championship games on Monday. Wednesday and Friday evenings, and exhibition games on the third Saturday of each month. The players will wear canvas shoes with rubber soles, and no substitute player will be permitted to play in the place of another player without having the regulation shoes. The pitcher's box will consist of a rubber mat as near the regulation size as can be obtained. The ball to be used is to be known as the "National Guard League Ball." It will weigh about two ounces less than the League or Association ball and will be furnished by the Gymnasium Association. The last pan in play will become the property of the winning club. The bats will be of regulation size, but will be made buts will be of regulation size, but will be made as light as possible. Championship games will consist of as manny innings as can be played in one hour and 30 minutes.

consist of as manny innings as can be played in one hour and 38 minutes.

Whenever a bad ball is knocked into the left field gallery the players will be entitled to two bases. A ball batted into the gallery at the extreme end of the atmory is to be credited as a home run. All foul balls caught on the fly will be declared out. A foul tip is included. A ball striking the ceiling or side wall and being caugat on the fly will be declared a fair catol. Anyone causing a rumpus or a kick during the progress of the game will be put off the floor. No man can play on any team but the one representing the company to which he belongs. The umpire will be absolute judge of play, and his decisions will be final. Any player questioning the decision of the umpire will subject his club to a forfeiture of at least one run for each offense. The umpire is further empowered to inflict fines of not less than one run or more than two for the first offense. A repetition will subject the offender either to a like fine or removal from the game.

WANTS CHEAP BALL

An Enruest Pien for Lower Prices to Local Games.

To the Sporting Editor of The Dispatch: It is amusing to observe the manner in which the League and Brotherhood magnates are catering to the old ball players for further contracts, which leads one to think that the remarks previously made by the League, that there was no money in the business, are nothing more than a delusion and a snare. If the statement is true, why offer such fabulous prices over the old contracts? Does any sane man believe that Pitcher Clarkson is worth $10,000 per annum? No, my friends; son is worth $10,000 per annum? No, my friends; the whole sum and substance is that the public are the victims, and, such being the case, the public would be justified in issuing the flat that unless the League or Brotherhood consents to play ball for 25 cents admission neither party will be patronized.

How is it that the Phitadelphia club makes heaps of money under the 25 cent tariff? It is all very well for Secretary Scaudrett to say each year the home club will come out about even this year. This statement has been made too often. Suppose Andrew Carnegie's men quit work next year and he made a public statement that his firm had lost money this year; yet, to get them to return to their work he offered them an advance in their salaries of 25 per cent, as is the case with Midget Miller, would Carnegie's statement be believed? I guess not. The press is with us. Agitate for a reduction in admission, and if the Brotherhood or League refuse it, make yourselves conspicuous by your absence. Yours truly,

TO-DAY'S MEETING.

Brotherhood Magnates at New York Ready to Do Business. NEW YORK, December 15.—The meeting of the Brotherhood to effect a permanent organization will be held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel to-morrow and already many of the prime movers in the scheme are in the city. Last night there was quite a gathering of them at an uptown resort, among them being Mr. Al Johnson, of Cleveland, Arthur Irwin, Jay Johnson, of Cleveland, Arthur Irwin, Jay Faatz, John Ward, George Gore and Fred Pfeffer. Chris Von der Ahe, of St. Louis, is also in the city and will attend the meeting in the hope that he may be able to prevent the annihilation of his St. Louis Browns.

Of course to-morrow's meeting was the one topic of conversation among the players, and at a caucus during the evening the work to be done to-morrow was outlined. All snoke hopefully of the future of the organization, did not seem at all dismayed at the desertion of so many of their number, and predicted that to-morrow would see the organization built on a sounder basis than was generally believed.

As to whether or not there would be an amalgamation of the remnants of the American Association with the Brotherhood nobody cared to say. Some thought St. Louis would be taken care of, while others were of the opinion that the Brotherhood would go along with the cities originally picked out. However, the meeting to-morrow will settle all speculation on that point.

GEORGE B. HORRS, of Louisville, is the lat-est plunger in the South. This young man had no money to speak of a year ago, but his win-nings now foot up over $10,000.

It seems that President Fulda's telegram yesterday relative to the meeting of Sullivan and Jackson, did not mention $15,000 as the amount of the purse. Sullivan says that Fulda asked him by wire if he would meet Jackson under stated conditions 'for a satisfactory purse.' 'A satisfactory purse is what I'm looking for," said Sullivan, 'and unless Mr. Fulda intended to come to my terms I don't be lieve he would ask such a question.

Young Martin Bergan, the jockey, said re-cently that he had earned $9,000 this year. This cently that he had earned 89,000 this year. This is a large amount for him, as he has only come to the front within 12 months. He is likely to soon again sign with Captain Sam Brown for 1892. Garrison earned close to $20,000 this year. The colored boy, Barnes, pocketed $12,000, while Isaac Murphy, Taylor, Hayward, McLaughlin and Littlefield, exclusive of gifts, earned from $7,000 to $10,000 each.

87,000 to $10,000 each.

But for the National League Dennia Brouthers would possibly have never been heard of outside of the township in which he was born. Yet Dennis has been lifted by the League to the proud distinction of $5,000 a year and the hero of every school boy. When Dennis signed a players' contract he heaved a big sigh and thanked God he had been delivered from League servitude. There are thousands of young men who would like to be slaves with the same conditions and salary attachments.—Ciacinnati Enquirer.

QUIET AS A CHURCH.

Dr. Rylance Preaches to His Old Congregation, as Advertised.

HIS ENEMIES FAIL TO FACE HIM,

And His Priends Turn Out in Full Force, and After His Sermon

> THEY TENDER HIM A CHURCH OVATION. Men, Women and Children Tell Him They Believe He is Innocent. When it was announced that Dr. Rylance

Rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, New York City, intended to occupy his pulpit yesterday an exciting time was anticipated. The Doctor's friends turned out in full force to hear him, though, and his enemies absented themseves from the church, so the ensation was sported.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATORA NEW YORK, December 15 .- Old St. Mark's Episcopal Church, in Stuyvesant street, has been the scene of many a historical gathering and of many a religious service conducted under very striking cirnumstances, but it is doubtful if any service held in the church was ever attended with quite such peculiar circumstances as the rning service there to-day. The Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Rylance, for so long a time the rector of the church, who is accused by certain members of his church and congregation of improper and scandal-ous conduct, preached. The vestrymen claim that Dr. Rylance is no longer the rector of St. Mark's, and Dr. Rylance claims that he is, and he has begun a suit against Lawyer Quackenbos and William V. King, of his congregation, for libel in circulating the slanderous stories about him. The Quackenbos party say that all the members of the vestry save one are against Dr. Rylance, and Dr. Rylance's friends are very earnest in declaring that nine-tenths of the congregation firmly believe in Dr. Rylance's innocence.

HIS PRIENDS RALLIED.

Of late Dr. Rylance's counsel, Mr. John Brooks Leavitt, and other friends have urged upon him that he was occupying a very inconsistent position. If he was rector of the church they said he should go to St. Mark's and conduct the services, and so it was decided. Dr. Rylance sent word to the vestry a week ago that he proposed to conduct services in the church on Sunday, December 15. The Quackenbos party says that Dr. Rylance and his friends also notified all their friends in the congregation by let-ter and by word of mouth of the Doctor's Hence, so says Dr. Rylance's opponents, the services to-day took on the form of a grand rally for Dr. Rylance, which was really marked by the absence of the influential church members. Anyway, the services at the church this morning were about twice as largely attended as usual. There is no doubt about that.

Dr. Rylance came to the church at his usual time, a little before 11 o'clock. He was met in the vestry room by James Ren-wick, the senior warden of the church, who is, it is said, the only member of the vestry who is counted as one of Dr. Rylance's

A LITTLE PALER THAN USUAL. The assistant minister was already in his place when the vestry room door opened and out came Dr. Rylance, in stole and surplice. His step was firm, but his face was a little paler than usual, and his lips were pressed services in honor of P. G. William Holt, P. tightly together. He bowed in prayer for a moment, and then rising, began reading the

Dr. Rylance made no allusion to his trouble. He preached about Herod and Herodias, and said nothing that could be twisted into a reference to the peculiar circumstances' of the occasion. The congregation listened with the utmost attention.

TENDERED AN OVATION. When the service was all over and Dr. Rylance was on his way to the vestry room he stopped for a moment to shake hands with an old woman who sat in one of the front seats. It was the signal for an ovation. The congregation streamed out of the pews and into the aisles, and almost every man, woman and child among them trooped past Dr. Rylance and shook his hand and told him they believed him innocent, and congratulated him. Many women were in

Lawyer Quackenhos was not in the church. Neither was Mr. William V. King, or in fact, any of the hostile vestrymen. Senior Warden Renwick was the only mem ber of the vestry present. Every one in the church seemed to be a friend of Dr. Rylance, and his enemies at least had stayed away. One man in the congregation told a reporter of THE DISPATCH, who was presented the congregation of the congregation to the congregation ent, that the evation to Dr. Rylance could not be considered as indicative of the true feeling of the church, because those opposed to Dr. Rylance had purposely absented Reported Movement to Actively Fight the Law and Order Lengue.

It was said yesterday that a movement was on foot among people who are antagonistic to the Law and Order League to organize a meeting in Latayette Hall, some evening toward the end of this week, to which all persons will be invited whose sympathies are with the merchants who have been pros-ecuted for Sanday selling. Men who are working up this counter movement claim that they will be able to prove that the Law and Order League, up to January, 1889, had bandled over 1,300 cases and has up to this time made $100,000.

A FIERCE STONE FIGHT.

Young Allogheny Ruffinns Shoot a 6-Year-

Old Child. Yesterday afternoon a lot of boys began a quarrel in the vicinity of Spring Garden avenue, Allegheny. They threw stones, clubs and other missiles at each other Several boys were struck, but not seriously injured. The fight was kept up the entire alternoon. One of the boys fired a pistol several times. One of the shots struck a 6-year-old child named Emil Klein who was playing about his father's doorstep. The bullet was a small one, and lodged in the left shoulder. His father picked the bullet out. No arrests were made.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bettles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."
